Facer Hawaii we learn that on the 6th inst. the center of Mulcunweoweo showed signs of an eruption, which from the brilliancy of the reflecturn and the large and dense column of smoke, gust last. By later advices, dated the 9th inst., we are informed that the eruption had apparently acteded. The crater of Kilanea, in the meantime, was apparently active, though no great flows had taken place on the floor of the crater.

Suppose Duares .- On Saturday last Mr. W. K. Sundgrass, an old and well known resident of Hombala, was found dead in his room on Hotel screet, near Alaken. It was evident from the appostures of the body that be had awakened some time during the night by the bleeding from the meetries and mouth, and had found himself too weak to call for assistance. He had left his bed, and after groping around for some time, as is induced by the traces of blood around the room. The body was not discovered until about 2 o'clock in the afternoon, at which time life must have mused some twelve or fifteen hours previously. ills remains were taken charge of by the United States Couse, and his funeral took place on Sunday morning at half-past nine o'clock, from the Bestel Church. On Sunday morning Mr. John Shaw, an old resident of twenty-five years standing, died suddenly at his residence in Honolulu, of amounts, it is presumed.—Advertiser, Jun. 14.

The vender of the carpetbog asked him where he bought the coat and what he paid for it. Being a "truthful" Indian he answered the inquiries, but the price which he stated he gave not tallying with the quality of the coat, the inquirer, soon after "Lo" left went to the merchant whose mark he had discovered on the garment, and asked him if he had sold it to the Indian. Of course the whole thing was apparent then. Soon after an officer in-formed "Lo" that he was wanted by Justice Clyde, for the purpose of explaining how he came by the coat he had in his carpet-bag. He walked along quietly with the officer, and when before the magistrate he was told that the merchant charged him with having stolen a coat from his store. "Lo" very promptly and good naturedly owned that he had stolen the coat, but said he was crazy when he stole it. He said Since me took him me go about the street, plenty laugh, felt velly good, me crazy, when me crazy me sometimes steal him things. HONOLULU, JANUARY 14, 1873. The low prices of sugare in the California market have induced many of our planters to hold back their sugars for the present; no doubt large shipments will be made towards New Zealand and Australia. Sugars in the San Francisco market are lower than they have been at any period since July, 1870. One of the many causes for this is owing to the large stock on hand, held chiefly for refining purposes, and great opposition is carried on between the refineries, which we regret to say is not a competition in the way of making rehases. Should their interests become consolidated it would no doubt advance the price of Grocery grades; this we look for to take place, as they have

CHLORODYNE THE PUBLIC ARE CAUTIONED AGAINST the unfounded statements frequently made, "that the composition of CHLRODYNE is known to Chemists and the Medical profession." The fact is, Chlorodyne was discovered and invented by Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE (ex Army Medical Staff), and so named by him, and it has baffled all attempts at anal-ysis by the first Chemists of the day. The method and secret of the preparation have never been published. It is obvious, therefore, that anything sold under the name, save Dr. J. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, is a spurious imitation.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne.
REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating, any of those unpleasant results attending the use of oplum. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellens good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively, using it in great quantities in the following diseases: —Cholera, Dysentery, Diarrhoss, Colics, Coughs, Asthma, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Whooping Cough, Oceanp, Hysteria, &c.
